I. Survey of HEA Fellowship Application

The Higher Education Academy, a UK organization, which is now part of Advance HE, is committed to "helping higher education and research be the best it can be, founded on a deep-rooted partnership with the sector". HEA awards Fellowships to academic staff in HE institutes based on their submission of evidence of quality teaching.

We are pleased to announce that the College will sponsor 50% of the HEA Fellowship application fees as a subscribing institution and the CTL and HRO will jointly reimburse the other 50% for colleagues who are awarded the fellowships, including Associate Fellowship (AFHEA), Fellowship (FHEA), Senior Fellowship (SFHEA), and Principle Fellowship (PFHEA). More detailed information could be founded on the Advance HE website at <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/fellowship>

Topic- Best Teaching Practices

Date & Time: 1-3am, July 2 (Beijing Time)

Speaker: Jon Bergmann (Flipped Class Movement Pioneer, Website: <https://www.jonbergmann.com/>)

Abstract:

Often, educators teach the way they were taught, in a passive manner that assumes information is simply transferred from the teacher to the students. However, learning requires students to be active when constructing new knowledge. In this session we aim to leverage insights from the learning sciences and research on how students learn to promote best teaching practices!
